COMMENTS SOUGHT ON VERIZON PETITION FOR WAIVER TO TREAT CERTAIN LOCAL NUMBER PORTABILITY COSTS AS EXOGENOUS COSTS

CC Docket No. 95-116

COMMENTS DUE: July 18, 2006

REPLY COMMENTS DUE: July 24, 2006

On June 30, 2006, Verizon filed a petition requesting that the Commission “waive certain rules in order to permit Verizon the opportunity to recover the remainder of its approved carrier-specific costs for implementing local number portability (“LNP”).”¹ Specifically, Verizon seeks authority to treat these costs as exogenous costs under section 61.45(d) of the Commission’s rules “and to recover those costs through a small addition to its end-user common line charge (“EUCL”).”² Verizon asserts that it satisfies the Commission’s standard for exogenous cost relief “because the unrecovered LNP costs are the result of a government mandate, were beyond Verizon’s control, and are not accounted for in Verizon’s price cap formula.”³ We note that AT&T Inc. (AT&T) filed a petition seeking similar relief on March 31, 2006, and an order granting the petition was released on July 10, 2006.⁴ Verizon asserts that “AT&T and Verizon are similarly situated with respect to under-recovery of their respective LNP cost estimates” and that there is good cause for a waiver because unforeseeable and unprecedented changes in the telecommunications marketplace prevented Verizon from a full reasonable recovery of its LNP costs.⁵

Interested parties may file comments on or before July 18, 2006, and reply comments on or before July 24, 2006. Filings in this proceeding should be captioned “In the Matter of Verizon’s Petition
